Vorwort

Die Tonübungen bestehen aus langen Tönen. Nach jedem Ton sollte der Schüler einige Sekunden Pause machen und dabei das Mundstück von den Lippen absetzen, damit diese sich erholen können. Die Übung sollte langsam und ruhig durchgespielt werden und keinesfalls sollte der Schüler das Bestreben haben, schnell durch zu sein.

Das altbewährte Aushalten-von-Tönen hat zwei wichtige Vorteile. Zum Einen bildet und stärkt es die Ansatzmuskulatur, zum Anderen fördert es eine gute Luftführung und damit die Tonqualität.

Die Notation der Töne ist aus verschiedenen Gründen graphisch gehalten:

1. Auf diese Weise können Töne gespielt werden, die im Brassini-Heft erst zu einem späteren Zeitpunkt eingeführt werden.
2. Der Schüler sieht die Tonhöhenunterschiede optisch vor sich.
3. Der Schüler kann beim Spielen die Linie mit den Augen mitverfolgen. Dies unterstützt die Luftführung.
4. Die gerade Linie steht für einen geraden Ton, der nicht wackelt.
5. Durch die einfache Darstellung kann er sich ganz auf den Klang konzentrieren.

Gerade die Einfachheit des Töneaushaltens, sowohl in technischer als auch in geistiger Sicht, gibt dem Lehrer die Möglichkeit grundlegende Probleme des Blasens anzusprechen und dem Schüler die Möglichkeit dieses umzusetzen.

Tonübungen 1

Spieler einen längeren Ton. Der Ton soll schön klingen und nicht wackeln.

Mache nach jedem Ton einige Sekunden Pause und setze das Instrument von den Lippen ab.

Spieler so hoch wie du kannst. Wenn du die höheren Töne noch nicht schaffst, beende die Übung. Nach einigen Wochen werden dir auch die höheren Töne gelingen.
